President's Comments:

Secretary's Report: Cathy voiced some concerns about patron issues this year. In years past all patron paperwork/checks went to the secretary. This year the paperwork and checks have been separated and spread between each of the music departments. Missing patron checks have been an issue this year. This has caused some issues with some patrons' names missing from various music programs. We are working through the issues.

Treasurer's Report: Tag day funds scheduled to be deposited. Money from football concessions will go in after Hurricane Sandy. Beth is going to touch base with Diane about publishing reports.

Orchestra: Aaron Mynes.

1. Orchestra fall concert went very well. Attendance was around 100, a good turnout. Audience was very pleased with the addition of fog and lights.
2. Northern Virginia Senior Regional Orchestra Auditions were awesome.

Band: Drew Ross/Chris Singleton.

1. Band's Fall Concert is on Tuesday, November 20th.
2. Veteran's Day Dinner is on Wednesday, November 28th.
3. Rehearsals for Holiday Spectacular are scheduled for early December.

Choir: Juliana Woodill

1. The Pyramid Concert was a combination of great fun and craziness. It went very well.

2. Choral's Fall Concert was on Tuesday, November 13th. It was a wonderful success.

3. Our focus right now is the Holiday Spectacular.

Old Business:

The Athletics department has 15 bricks remaining in their Phase 2 Turf Fund Raiser. Rosanne Arnold has asked the music boosters to circulate brick information in an effort to help wrap things up.

We need to get our volunteers for Tiny Tots. Band parents are needed for parking lot duty.

Does the drama department want to buy concessions for Tiny Tots? Beth will follow up.

New Business:

The program for Tiny Tots is done by Choral.

Tickets for the Holiday Spectacular will be handled by Choral on Thursday night and Band on Friday night, December 13th & 14th.

For Holiday Spectacular Drama will handle the sandwich boards.

Here's the playoff scenario for our football team:
If Oakton beats Centreville and Chantilly beats Westfields, the Chargers next game would be on the Saturday following Thanksgiving, November 24th.

Next meeting: Thursday, January 3, 2013 at 7 PM.
