Season End

Friday November 7, is our last home game of the regular football season and also the time when we traditionally honor the Senior students in Marching Band and Guard.

"In the great school of life, all halls lead to the band room"

Volunteer Opportunities

Concessions!. Senior parents will be presenting their marchers at half-time so we especially need underclass parent volunteers for this game. Haven't yet worked the concessions? This is the perfect time to start.

Are you on Facebook? There is a new private FB group for band parents. This is not a school sponsored page.
 It is a good place to connect for car pools, uniforms swap and kudos.

SENIORS

"The field is where I learned... how to march one step at a time... that I must attention to others as well as myself...how to keep my chin up, and my eyes with pride... how to become part of the music... that every person plays an important and necessary part...how to have faith in myself... Marching band gives you so much more than some songs and a uniform. It gives us lessons that we take with us for the rest of our lives."

Join the band and guard at the End of Season banquet on Thursday November 6 at the CHS cafeteria.

We review all the fun we had this season!. We will get a chance to enjoy dinner with the band and recognize all the hard work of the marchers, volunteers and the coordinators.

A special slide show has been put together for the season.

See you there.

Note: Photo disks with all the photos our parent volunteers have taken, will be available for order at the banquet. Jennifer Denner is coordinating this fantastic memento.
