University of Delaware

Congratulations to our Mighty Marching Chargers on a great performance at the Bands of America competition, this past weekend at the University of Delaware. They were ranked 4th in their division and earned a spot in the finals, where they placed 10th out of 28 bands overall. Great job to all! Our next competition is this Saturday in the Parade of Champions at James Madison University.

ATTENTION ALL 8TH GRADE STUDENTS!
You're invited to join us for
CHANTILLY HS BAND & COLOR GUARD 8TH GRADE NIGHT
Friday, October 21st, 2016
Chantilly Chargers vs. Briar Woods Falcons

What: Come hang out with the Mighty Marching Chargers and learn about marching band and color guard. You'll get to march into the stadium with the band, cheer for the Chargers and play stand songs!

Who: 8th graders who will be attending Chantilly HS next year and are interested in marching band or color guard.

When & Where: Sign in at the CHS band door (SW corner facing baseball field) at 5:00pm. Pick up is at around 10pm in the same location.

Bring: Your instrument, a jacket (it gets cool), and money for concessions after half-time (eat a snack or light meal before you come—you will not have an opportunity to eat until after half-time).
